COACH TOURISM
ASSOCIATION

FESTIVE SEASON TOURS

Our Christmas and New Year Tours offer excellent value taking into account the additional cost of providing staff, hotels and entertainment during this time of year.

Most of the hotels we use are business hotels and some key members of staff may be missing to be with their families. Therefore, some part-time staff may be used and their systems will not operate on an individual basis. Hotels arrange their own Christmas and New Year packages which we contract to take part in.

During this period all excursions are subject to safe weather conditions. No refunds will be given if we are unable to operate our excursions.

In the event of Christmas markets not being confirmed, delayed or cancelled, we will still visit the destination (if safe to do so) as advertised on our itinerary.

Many Christmas markets charge high prices to book our coaches in for setting down and parking. It is essential therefore that strict times are observed.

At busy Christmas party times, we may have Dinner arranged in a banqueting room instead of the main restaurant.

This brochure was compiled in June 2026 and therefore all itineraries are subject to change. These points should be taken into account before booking.
